JOSEPH SABIN,

In the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the United States for the Southern District of New York.

BRADSTREET PRESS.

TO
J. CARSON BREVOORT, Esq.,
OF BROOKLYN, N. Y.,

TO WHOM I AM GREATLY INDEBTED FOR HIS EARLY ENCOURAGEMENT, CORDIAL COÖPERATION, AND SCHOLARLY SUPERVISION OF MANY OF THESE PAGES,

THIS VOLUME IS RESPECTFULLY DEDICATED BY

JOSEPH SABIN.

NEW YORK, September 1, 1868.

NOTICE.

As it is my intention to issue a preface to the whole work with the last volume, I now, at the conclusion of Vol. I., content myself with reproducing, with some alterations, the Prospectus issued December 5, 1866, and remarking that the list of authorities, therein referred to, will be enlarged and reprinted with the last volume.

Hereafter the work will proceed with more rapidity and greater regularity.

JOSEPH SABIN.

NEW YORK, September 1, 1868.

PROSPECTUS.

AFTER nearly four years' labor, in arranging and classifying the material which had accumulated on my hands in the course of some fifteen years of research, I am at last able to publish the following specimen of my projected "DICTIONARY OF BOOKS RELATING TO AMERICA."

Had the magnitude and extreme difficulty of the undertaking been presented to my mind in full proportions at the outset, I should never have attempted it; and, indeed, I may remark, that I have more than once almost determined upon its abandonment; but a deep sense of its importance, however imperfectly it may be executed, and a strong partiality for bibliographical pursuits, have stimulated me to continue my labor, until the work has attained such a degree of completeness as to justify its publication, and render its conclusion a task of comparative ease; and I now present this volume as a fair specimen of what the work is intended to be, and respectfully invite for it a candid examination.

The plan I have adopted is briefly this: An alphabetical arrangement, under the names of authors, and, in the case of anonymous writers, under the most obvious subject.

In the arrangement of the Spanish, Portuguese,

French, and Dutch proper names, I have followed the best authorities; but, as these differ, I have made free use of Cross References, and remark, with Plutarch,* "On the subject of names, however, the irregularity of custom, would we insist upon it, might furnish us with discourse enough."

Anonymous works are arranged with more difficulty. The subject most obvious to one mind is obscure to another. Books having reference to a State or City have sometimes been placed under the name of that State or City. Collections, Proceedings, and Transactions of Societies will be found under the name of the Society; as for the rest, they will usually be found under the first word of the title-page, particles excepted. The last volume will consist of an Index of Subjects, which will obviate some of these difficulties.

Review "Notices" of the more important books will be referred to, and, in the case of a rare book, a capital letter following the title will indicate some Public Library in which it may be found.

The words "Relating to America" are used with a wide meaning, and it is probable that serious and proper objection may be taken to some titles of books introduced; as, for example, the various works by the early New-England Divines. It must not be forgotten, however, that, in many respects, the New-England Government was a Theocracy, and the works of these Divines had much to do with shaping its institutions; at all events, they are books sought for with avidity, and bought at high prices by the collectors of "Americana," and, if only for that reason, have a right to appear here.

I shall not attempt to anticipate the many criticisms which may be made. I shall be glad to have errors pointed out and improvements suggested, and respectfully solicit the coöperation and assistance of gentlemen who have given their attention to any or many particular authors.

I conclude this preliminary notice with the remark, that, whenever possible, I have examined the books for myself, and have described them with all necessary minuteness. Of those not within my reach, I have been compelled to content myself with such descriptions as have come under my notice in the list of authorities quoted on the cover of Part I. of this work,* or sometimes from a less trustworthy source—a Bookseller's Catalogue. Should I wait to make this bibliography as full and exact on all points as I trust it will generally be found, I should never complete it.

It will, perhaps, save inquiry, if I here state that the number of parts of which the work will consist is a question I cannot answer; yet, while I design to make it as complete as possible, my own remarks on the books will be distinguished by their brevity.

The Parts will be issued with all convenient speed, and subscriptions will not be received for anything less than the entire work.

JOSEPH SABIN.

* This Dictionary is published first in parts, of which No. I. appeared in January, 1867.

EXPLANATORY.

The Initials which precede the Numbers, at the end of the Description, indicate certain public Libraries in which the books may be consulted.

A.	signifies	Astor Library, New York.
B.	"	Public Library of Boston.
BD.	"	Bodleian Library.
BM.	"	British Museum, London.
C.	"	Library of Congress.
CP.	"	Library of Parliament, Canada.
H.	"	Harvard College Library.
M.	"	Massachusetts Historical Society, Boston.
N.	"	New York Historical Society.
P.	"	Library Company of Philadelphia.
Pa.	"	Pennsylvania State Library.
S.	"	New York State Library.
W.	"	Antiquarian Society, Worcester, Mass.

Occasional references are made to private collections, when the books are not to be found in public Libraries.

Thus:

J. C. B.	stands for	the Library of John Carter Brown.
J. C. Bt.	"	" " J. Carson Brevoort.
G.	"	" " A. W. Griswold.
J. L.	"	" " James Lenox.
W. M.	"	" " William Menzies.
R.	"	" " John A. Rice.

ll. means leaves.

pp. " pages.

n. p. " no place.

n. d. " no date.

... indicates the omission of words of a title regarded as unimportant.

... . " that the omission began in a sentence and extends to the end, or farther.

. ... " that the omission began a sentence.

|| is used when there is a difference between the titles of different volumes of the same work, to mark the passage from one title-page to another.

[] include words which are not on the title-page. When brackets [] occur in a title they are represented in this Dictionary by parentheses ().

() are used to indicate leaves or pages not numbered by the printer.

Thus: "(3) l., pp. (3), viii. (13), 464," means 3 unnumbered leaves, followed by three pages unnumbered, 8 numbered with Roman numerals, 13 unnumbered, and 464 numbered with Arabic numerals. It should be noticed that "pp. (4)" implies that all four pages are printed upon; (2) l. that one side of one or both the leaves is blank. Leaves blank on both sides are not counted, unless the contrary is stated.

+ is used when another edition of a work is described without repeating the title-page. It indicates that, so far as is known, the titles of the two editions are essentially alike.

Other references will occur in the course of publication, all of which will be explained in the last volume.

Works which have only a slight relation to America are enumerated briefly in the notes in smaller type—generally in alphabetical succession.

This collection of the most memorable Voyages to the East and West Indies, from 1246 to 1696, contains translations of all the early voyages to this continent, and is illustrated by a profusion of copper plates. As each voyage has a separate pagination, the work is sometimes found bound up in 28, 29 or 30 volumes, and is worth about $20. There is also an edition in folio, 8 vols. Leyde. This indefatigable publisher, who united within himself the functions of author, editor and publisher, also issued the plates to the above work separately, under the following title: “Atlas nouveau et curieux des plus celebres itineraires; ou recueil de nouvelles cartes geog-raph. des voyages modernes de long cours, de depuis l’an 1246 jusqu’a l’an 1696.” 2 vols., folio. Leyde. He also published “Grand Theatre Historique, ou Nouvelle Histoire Universelle tant sacrée que profane." 5 vols., folio. Leyde, 1703; and "La Galerie Agréable du Monde." 66 parts bound in 33 or 22 vols. folio., of which Vol. xvii. relates to America.

The original Edition. Mr. Rich observes of Acosta, that he is one of the earliest writers who have treated philosophically of America and its productions. Dr. Robertson pronounces him a standard authority, and Backer, in his Bibliothèque des Écrivains de la Compag. de Jésus, observes: "Joseph de Acosta, né à Medina del Campo, vers l'an 1539, passa, après avoir professé la théologie, à Ocana, en 1571 aux Indes occidentales, et fut le second Provincial de l'ordre des Jésuites au Pérou où il séjourna pendant 17 ans. Il mourut recteur à Salamanque, le 11 février 1600. Son ouvrage, estimé à juste titre, a été réimprimé assez souvent et traduit dans presque toutes les langues." Pinelo, however, alleges that the work is taken from the MSS. of Diego Duran, a Dominican Monk. See, also, Camus, p. 103. Clement Bibl. Curieuse. Priced in the Nuggets, £2. 2. 0. Salva, 10s. od.

All the documents in these volumes are in the respective languages in which they were originally written by the persons acting under the authority of the French and American governments. "If they do not display much of the address for which French diplomacy claims credit, some important points of public law are discussed with ability and spirit, and though they are offensive in their nature, they form precious materials for the annalist. Collections of this kind which render state documents more accessible to historians and statesmen, are of great utility, and entitle the compilers of them to public acknowledgments."—M. R.

Jhoan Baptista de el Peru en su nombres. 1659. 4to. 149

"With an engraved title, but no printer's name. Evidently printed exclusively for the use of the order of Preachers, and consequently of great rarity. The author appears to have made a voyage from Lima to Spain, to give this account of the state of the religion of his order in South America, to his superiors. It is not mentioned by Nicolas Antonio; and Barcia, who collected every thing relating to America, evidently never saw the book."—RICH.

This little volume is highly prized by collectors of rare books, and has sold as high as £16; but, according to Barcia, its rarity is not owing to a rigid suppression of the work by order of Philip IV., as is stated by most bibliographical writers, but from a very small number of copies having been printed. "It was probably not intended for sale, as it is not furnished with the licenses and privileges usually prefixed to books published at the time. Acuña was accompanied by Artieda, a brother Jesuit, and the object of their voyage was to ascertain whether the treasures of Peru might not be brought to Europe by way of the river Amazon, without going through the South Sea (at that time much infested by pirates) and round Cape Horn."—RICH. The work was suppressed by the Court of Spain, on the ground that it might prove advantageous to the Portuguese, who had wrested from Spanish dominion the Brazils, and the Colony of Para, on the mouth of the Amazon. Peignot says: "On connaît trois ou quatre exemplaires, tout au plus, de l'édition originale."

With Observations on Former Historians, the Conduct of our Colony Governors, Superintendents, Missionaries, &c. Also an Appendix, containing a Description of the Floridas and the Mississippi Lands, with their Productions—The Benefits of colonizing Georgiana, and Civilizing the Indians—And the way to make all the colonies more valuable to the mother country. By James Adair, Esq., A Trader with the Indians and Resident in their Country for Forty Years. London, Edward and Charles Dilly, MDCCLXXV. 4to, 6 p. l., pp. 464. Map. 155

"Mr. Adair points out various customs of the Indians, having a striking resemblance to those of the Jews; and the great object of his work appears to be, to prove that the aborigines of America are descended from that race. Some distrust appears to have fallen upon his statements, although he himself says that his account is neither disfigured by fable nor prejudice."—ALLEN. ADAMS. A Defence of the Constitutions of Government of the United States of America. By John Adams, LL.D. London, C. Dilly, M.DCC.LXXXVII. 8vo, pp. xxxi., 392. 233

First published in this form as a complete work. Reprinted, Boston, 1787. 12mo + New York, 1787. + Philadelphia, Hall & Sellers, M.DCC.LXXXVII. 12mo, pp. xx. 3-390. The following year the author wrote the second and third volumes, and the work was published with the following title :

ADAMS. A Defence of the Constitutions of Government of the United States of America against the Attack of M. Turgot. By John Adams, LL.D. London, C. Dilly, MDCCCLXXXVII-VIII. 8vo, Vol. I., pp. xxxi., 392 ; Vol. II., Title, 1 l., pp. 651 ; Vol. III., Title, 1 l., pp. 528, Index, 18 l. 234

ADAMS. A Defence of the Constitutions of Government of the United States of America, Against the Attack of M. Turgot in his Letter to Dr. Price Dated the Twenty-Second day of March, 1778. By John Adams, LL.D. . . . In Three Volumes. A New Edition. London, John Stockdale, 1794. 8vo, pp. 8,

This was reprinted as a Third Edition: Philadelphia, W. Cobbett, 1793. 3 vols., 8vo. Stockdale re-issued his edition with the following title:

ADAMS. History of the Principal Republics of the World; a Defence of the Constitutions of government of the United States of America against the attack of M. Turgot . . . London, J. Stockdale, 1794. 3 vols., 8vo, pp. xxxviii., 392, 451, 528 and Index, 18 l.

"This work is not, as its title states, a defence of the American Constitution, but a warm defence of the Constitution of Great Britain. It is the best anti-democratic treatise that we have seen; for Dr. Adams appears to dread that that is the extreme to which his countrymen will naturally lean, and he has exerted his best endeavours to obviate that evil."—Monthly Review. This writer has not distinguished between republicanism and democracy. The work did much to familiarize the European mind to the novel state of things then taking place in America. It includes the opinions of eminent writers on various republics of the world.

The same as No. 239, with another title. It was published with another tract: "Observations on the Commerce of the American States." It was first published in the Boston Gazette in 1765, reprinted in the London Chronicle, afterward by Aimon, at the end of a tract entitled "True Sentiments of America in 1768."

ADAMS. Four Letters: Being an interesting Correspondence between those Eminently Distinguished Characters, John Adams, late President of the United States, and Samuel Adams, late Governor of Massachusetts, on the Important Subject of Government. Boston, 1802. 8vo, pp. 32. 242

ADAMS. History of the Dispute with America, from its Origin in 1754. Written in the Year 1774. By John Adams, Esq. London, J. Stockdale. 8vo, pp. 89. N. 243

"The avowed design of this pamphlet is to pursue the tories through all their dark intrigues and wicked machinations, and to show the rise and progress of their schemes for enslaving America. The Conduct of Bernard and Hutchinson is treated with great freedom and asperity; nor is the indignant author less sparing of some eminent statesmen in England, under whose influence they projected and pursued the inauspicious system of American Taxation."—M. R., LXX., p. 477. The work is an abridgment of the Letters of Novanglus, which first appeared in the Boston Gazette, 1774, which were reprinted in another form in Almon's Remembrancer for 1775, then translated into Dutch, with the following title:

The African Trade, the Great Pillar and Support of the British Plantation Trade in America: Shewing that our Loss, by being beat out of all the Foreign Markets for Sugar and Indigo by the French, has been owing to the Neglect of our African Trade; which only can supply our Colonies with Negroes, for the making of Sugars, and all other Plantation Produce: That the Support and Security of the Negroe-Trade depends wholly on the due and effectual Support of the Royal African Company of England, which has hitherto preserved this invaluable Trade to these Kingdoms: That the Difficulties and Discouragements which the said Company labours under, threaten the absolute Loss of the Negroe Trade to this Nation; and consequently the total Ruin of all the British Plantations in America, And also, What the Royal African Company have a natural Right to hope for this Session of Parliament from their Country, in order to enable them to support and maintain the British Interest, Rights and Privileges in Africa, against the French, and all other Rivals in the same most valuable Trade. AGUERO (D. G. E. de). Gazophilatium regium Perubicum. Opus sane pulcrum, a plerisque petitum & ab omnibus, in universum, desideratum non sine magno labore & experientia digestum, providèque, & accuratè illustratum. In quo omnes materiae spectantes, ad administrationem calculationem & conservationem, jurium regalium Regni Peruani latissimè discutiuntur & plena manupètractantur, Editum a D. Gaspare de Escalona Aguero, &c. Matriti, 1775. 520

The first edition was printed in 1647 and reprinted Matriti, 1675. The second part is in Spanish, and is entitled Gazofilacio Real de Peru. Of the edition of 1775, some copies are on large paper. The official position of the author gave him access to the best authorities, and the book is reliable. Brunet, p. 115-116, thus notices the previous editions: "Cet ouvrage, qui fait connaître l'administration du gouvernement espagnol au Pérou est porté à 130 fr. sous le n° 32 du Lxi Catal. de A. Asher, Berlin 1858, où on le donne comme un livre parfaitement inconnu aux Bibliographes, et même à Antonio: ce dernier, il est vrai, n'a pu parler dans sa Bibliotheca nova imp. en 1672, de cette édition de 1675 mais il en a cité une plus ancienne sous ce titre:"

ALEXANDER VI. A printed broadside in Gothic type, being a contemporary publication of the celebrated Bull of 1493, dividing the World between the Portuguese and the Spaniards, giving to the former the East Indies, and to the latter America or the West Indies. 1493. Folio. 745

The above broadside sold at Puttick and Simpson's in May, 1854, for £4 8s. od. This description is taken from their catalogue. The famous bull referred to bears the following title: "Exemplar Bullo sive donationis autoritate cuius Episcopus Romanus Alexander ejus nominis Sextus concessit et donavit Ferdinando et Elizabetho Regi et Regino Castello Legionis &c. et suis successoribus Regiones et Insulas novi orbis &c." In Latin and English in Purchas' Pilgrim, Vol. 1., B. 2, Ch. 1, p. 14. Purchas follows up his translation of this most arrogant and blasphemous bull of Alexander with an invective, in his best manner, most spirited and able, forcibly depicting the cruel atrocities perpetrated under this instrument, saying that "had not the piety and pity of some eye-witnesses excited the royal provision of the Catholic Kings in this case, even Hell itself had been loosed on earth, under the pretext of Heaven, and the prince of darkness, had effected his blackest and cruellest designs in habit of an angel of light. Tantum religio poteras suadere malorum, may we say of this religious, irreligious Bull."

ALLEN. A Brief Narrative of the Proceedings of the Government of New York, relative to their obtaining the Jurisdiction of that large District of Land to the Westward from Connecticut River, which, antecedent thereto, had been patented by his Majesty's Governor and Council of the Government of New Hampshire. And also of the monopolizing Conduct of the Government of New York, in their subsequently patenting Part of the same Land, and oppressing the Grantees and Settlers under New Hampshire. Together with Arguments demonstrating that the Property of those Lands was conveyed from the Crown to the New-Hampshire Grantees, by Virtue of their respective Charters. With Remarks on a Pamphlet entitled, "A State of the Right of the Colony of New York," &c., and on the Narrative of the Proceedings subsequent to the Royal Adjudication, concerning the Lands to the Westward of Connecticut River, lately usurp'd by New Hampshire. Intended as an Appendix to the General Assembly's State of the Right of the Colony of New York (with Respect to it's Eastern Boundary on Connecticut River, so far as concerns the late Encroachments under the Government of New Hampshire), Published at their Session, 1773. By Ethan Allen. Bennington, 23d September, 1774. Hartford, Printed by Eben Watson, near the Great Bridge. 8vo, pp. 211. 792

Referred to in Ira Allen's Hist. Vt., 52; also in a letter of E. Allen in Slade's Vt. State Papers, at p. 93.

ALLEN. Reason the only Oracle of Man, or a Compendious System of Natural Religion. Alternately Adorned with Confutations of a variety of Doctrines incompatible to it; Deduced from the most exalted Ideas which we are able to form of the Divine and Human Characters, and from the Universe in General. By Ethan Allen, Esq. Bennington, State of Vermont, Printed by Haswell and Russell, M,DCC,LXXXIV. 4to, pp. 477.

This singular book is the rarest of Allen's publications, and is remarkable as being the first work published in America in direct opposition to the Christian religion. An abridgment of it was published in New York in 1836, with the following title: Reason, the only Oracle of Man; or a Compendious System of Natural Religion. By Col. Ethan Allen. Published by G. W. and A. I. Matsell, 94 Chatham St., New York, 1836. 12mo, pp. 106, including table of contents and index. "The first edition of this work was printed by Mr. Haswell of Bennington, Vt. Not long after its publication, a part of the edition, comprising the entire of several signatures, was accidentally consumed by fire: whether Mr. Haswell deemed this fire a judgment upon him for having printed the work or not, is unknown—but, the fact is, he soon after committed the remainder of the edition to the flames, and joined the Methodist Connection; so that but few copies were circulated."—INTRODUCTION TO MATSELL'S EDITION, p. I.

Esq., of Vermont, in the United States of America, the Claimant in this Cause. London, Printed by J. W. Myers, 1798. 8vo, pp. vi., 406. s. 820

Pages 1 to 368 of a second volume were printed and distributed without a title—the want of documents having then stopped the publication. Finally, another volume was published as a second, with the following title :

ALLEN. Particulars of the Capture of the Ship Olive Branch, laden with Arms, the Property of General Ira Allen, captured by the British, and an Account of his Imprisonment in France, and Persecutions by a Conspiracy of the Two Hemispheres : with an Appendix, proposing a Ship Canal from Lake Champlain to the River St. Lawrence; the Evacuation of Ticonderoga, and Events of the War in 1777 . . . Truce in 1780, to the end of the War and a Narrative of Colonel Ethan Allen's Captivity, from 1775 to 1778. By Ira Allen of Vermont, the Claimant in this Cause. Volume II. Philadelphia, Printed for the Author, 1805. 8vo, pp. xxx., 551. s. 821

This volume includes a resumé of the first, and in some respects may be considered a complete work.

ALLEN. Statement Applicable to the Case of the Olive Branch, which Has a Cargo of Cannon and Arms for the Vermont Militia, and Captured on its Passage from France to the United States, by an English Man-of-War, in 1796, which are for the Consideration of the Governments and Rulers of Great Britain, France, and the United States. Almanac of Celestial Motions, viz., of the Sun and Planets, &c., for the Year 1674. 16mo. Cambridge, 1674. + Of Celestial Motions, for the Year 1680. 16mo. Boston, 1680. + Of the Cœlestial Motions, &c., for the Year of our Lord God M.DC.XCIV. Boston, 1694. 16mo. M. 940

These are some of the earliest American almanacs. Thomas' History of Printing gives the titles of some of earlier dates, which will be noticed hereafter.

Almanach Américain, ou État physique, politique, ecclésiastique & militaire de l'Amérique; ouvrage qui comprend les forces, la population, les loix, le commerce & l'administration de chaque Province de cette partie du monde; le tableau de ceux qui y figurent par leurs charges & par leurs dignités,; celui de la Marine des Peuples Européans [sic.] qui y ont des Possessions et le nom des Officiers qui sont employés dans cette partie de l'administration publique. Par M. P. D. L. R ...C. A. L. T. de M. Paris, Chez l'auteur [et chez] Lamy, 1783. 12mo. 941

It appears by a note on the back of the title that this work was edited by M. [Poncelin] de la Roche-Tillac. It was continued annually. The work published in 1782, 1783 and 1785, under the title "État physique, politique, ecclésiastique et militaire de l'Asie, de l'Afrique et de l'Amérique, ouvrage," etc., as above, and with the half-title, "Almanach américain, asiatique et africain, ou État," etc., apparently belongs to the same series. I have seen no volume later than 1787. Barbier implies that it continued to be published till 1791.

Almanach des Colonies, 1788. Paris, 1788. 12mo. 942

Almanach et directorum français des États-Unis, pour l'année 1852-1858. New York, 1852-58. 7 vols., 12mo. 943

Almanaque Universal Hispano-Americano. Paris, 1855. 8vo.

ALMARAZ. Memoria de los trabajos ejecutados por la comision científica de Pachuca en el ano de 1864, dirigida por el Ingeniero Ramon Almaraz. Mandada publicar de orden de S. M. I. por el ministerio de fomento. Mexico, 1865. 4to, pp. 358. Plates and Plans. 945

ALMON (John). Anecdotes of the Life of the Right Hon. William Pitt, Earl of Chatham, with his Speeches. London, J. Almon, 1792, 4 vols., 8vo. + London, 1797. 3 vols., 8vo. + Seventh Edition, London, 1810. 3 vols., 8vo. s. 949

[ALMON.] Biographical, Literary, and Political Anecdotes; of several of the most Eminent Persons of the Present Age, with an Appendix, consisting of Original, Explanatory and Scarce Papers. Never before printed. London, Longman, 1797. 3 vols., 8vo. 950

Contains numerous articles on American history and politics, account of the controversy about Gov. Hutchinson's Letters, &c. Lowndes characterizes the work as partial and interesting.

[ALMON]. A Collection of interesting, authentic Papers, relative to the Dispute between Great Britain and America; shewing the Causes and Progress of that Misunderstanding, from 1764 to 1775. London, J. Almon, M.DCCLXXVII. 8vo, pp. 280; Index, pp. 3. N. 951

Usually called, by its running title, "Prior Documents," and intended to accompany the Remembrancer.

ALMON. Collection of the most interesting Tracts, lately published in England and America, on the subjects of Taxing the American Colonies and regulating their Trade. London, Almon, 1766-1779. 6 vols., 8vo. c. 952

These tracts were published separately, and are described under their respective titles in this Dictionary. Almon merely issued them collectively with the above title in vols. 1 and 2. The titles to the other volumes differ.

[ALMON.] The History of the late Minority; Exhibiting the Conduct, Principles, and Views of that Party, during the Years 1762, 1763, 1764, and 1765. [By John Almon and H. Cotes.] The third impression. London, 1765. 8vo. + The fourth impression. London, Reprinted, 1766. 8vo, pp. 332. 953

Almon was the active pamphleteer and publisher during the American contest, and in close connection with the liberal party and prominent men in the Colonies.

Title and Contents, 4 l., pp. 376. This work contains every authentic paper relative to the American Revolution, whether published in England or America, by the British Ministry or the American Congress. The Prior Documents (No. 900 ante) should be added. Almon states that the plan of the work is "to select from all the public prints the best account of every material public event; to print it in octavo; and at the end of the volume to give a copious index to the whole." "There are several editions of the first volume, all except the first, in royal 8vo, while the remainder are in demy 8vo. The first edition of the first volume is also deficient of several papers contained in the succeeding editions."—RICH. Prof. Smyth, in his lectures, says, "The great magazine of information is the Remembrancer." "Mr. Almon was assisted by George Pownall in this work, which has now become exceedingly scarce."—NICHOL'S LIT. ANIC.

America. A most singular woodcut or broadside, measuring about $13\frac{1}{2}$ in. by $8\frac{1}{2}$ in. with 4 lines of letterpress beneath, in German, purporting to be a representation and description of the natives discovered by the Portuguese on the northern coast of South America. The following is a literal translation of the inscription, viz.—“This figure represents to us the people and island which have been discovered by the Christian king of Portugal or by his subjects. The people are thus naked, handsome, brown, well shaped in body, their heads, necks, arms, private parts, feet of men and women, are a little covered with feathers. The men also have many precious stones in their faces and breasts. No one else has anything, but all things are in common.

And the men have as wives those who please them, be they mothers, sisters, or friends, therein make they no distinction. They also fight with each other. They also eat each other, even those who are slain, and hang the flesh of them in the smoke. They become a hundred and fifty years of age. And have no government.” 1031

The cut attempts to represent the minutæ of the foregoing inscription. It is believed to be the earliest xylographic print relating to America, and unique. Its date is, doubtless, very shortly subsequent to the letters of Columbus announcing his discovery. In Stevens' Am. Bibliographer, pp. 7, 8, it is reproduced in fac-simile, and described at greater length.

The American Almanac and Repository of Useful Knowledge for the Year 1830-1862. Boston, 1829-'62. 33 vols., 12mo. 1039

The volume for 1830 was edited by Jared Sparks; from 1831 to 1842 the work was conducted by Joseph E. Worcester; from 1843 to 1847 by Francis Bowen, subsequently by George P. Sanger. The volumes for 1839, 1849 and 1859 contain general indexes to the volumes for 1830-39, 1840-49 and 1850-59, respectively. This valuable work, which is, in fact, a compendious annual register, terminated in 1862, is well worthy of being preserved as a book of reference. It was succeeded by the National Almanac.

The American and British Chronicle of War and Politics; being an Accurate and Comprehensive Register of the most memorable Occurrences in the last ten Years of His Majesty's Reign: in which will be found above Eighteen Hundred Interesting Events, During the late War between Great Britain and America, France, Spain and Holland; From May 10, 1773, to July 16, 1783. The whole carefully collected from Authentic Records, and correctly arranged in Chronological Order. Multum in Parvo. This compendium, or Political System of Foreign and Domestic Affairs, is a faithful Diary of Civil and Military Transactions, extracted from Government Dispatches and Official Papers, Votes of the House of Commons and Lords, Resolutions of Congress, Acts of Council, Royal Proclamations, Edicts, &c. Provincial Considerations, Debates, Petitions, Addresses, Meetings, and Determinations. Every Engagement by Sea and Land, Military Operations, Civil Establishments, Changes in Administration, Political Struggles, and Principal Appointments; Treaties of Alliance, Commerce, and Peace; Constitutional and Financial Reform; Land and Marine Force of the Belligerent Powers; Public Revenue, Debt, and Expenditure, &c. &c. &c. To the Recapitulation of Public Occurrences during the late War in America and in Europe, is added a general Table of Prior Events; British Governors in America at the Commencement of Hostilities; Members of the first Congress; Constitution and Form of Government of the several States, and Population in each; Ships of War taken, lost, or destroyed; Roads in America; and a copious Abridgement of the Treaties of Peace. London, Printed for the Author [1783]. 8vo, 60 unnumbered leaves. s. 1040

The dedication is signed E. J. S. Faribault, No. 926, quotes a book with a similar title, 4 vols., 4to, London, 1801, which is probably an error.

'I was much attached to this work, and had great reluctance to abandon it, unproductive and vexatious as was the management of it; but at length I sang its requiem, at the close of the year 1792. That it had considerable merit is universally acknowledged; and there is no vanity in the declaration, as the work did not contain a single essay of my own. The whole of my labour consisted in the selection of its contents, and the addition occasionally of a few notes, of little importance.'—M. Carey's Autobiography, in New Eng. Mag. Washington said that a more useful literary plan had never been undertaken in America, or one more deserving of public encouragement."—RICH. Resumed as:

"A lively and humorous defence of the American Indians against the attacks of De Pauw, attributed by Meusel to M. Poivre, but Barbier says that it is either by M. Bonneville or Dom Pernetty. Now, Poivre was never in America : he was employed in the East Indies at the time this discussion was going forward. It appears that M. Bonneville was only eleven years of age at the time. As it is not probable that Dom Pernetty wrote two works on the subject, in the same year, all these conjectures as to the authorship of this work are apparently erroneous."—Rich ; who gives the imprint, Berlin, 1772, 8vo, pp. 116 ; Heinsius, and also Kaiser, have Berlin, Rottmann, 1774, 8vo.

Reprinted, with the author's name, in 1792. See M. R., LXXXI., p. 61. "Mr. Thomas Anburey, the author of the travels, was an officer under General Burgoyne, and whose conduct, in his unfortunate campaign, one object of this publication appears to have been to vindicate. The Monthly Reviewer says: 'He sometimes diverts us with anecdotes concerning the speeches or customs or manners of the people, as he passed among them, which, though droll, or even ridiculous enough, are of that kind to which something similar may be met with in all countries, as may be easily imagined by those who have travelled in England.' How different from the great reviewers of 1832! The Critical Reviewer pronounces 'this work, in its most essential parts, to be an ill-digested plagiarism from Gen. Burgoyne's Narrative, and from the account of the prosecution of Colonel Henley.'—RICH. "Anburey copies verbatim from Burnaby and Peters, also very impudently from Smyth."—*From a MS. note by C. D. The object of the author of this pamphlet is to show "that the American Colonies, instead of promoting the trade and manufactures of Great Britain, have tended in a most powerful manner to depress them. That, instead of adding strength and stability to the empire, they have necessarily weakened it to a great degree, and exposed it to the most imminent danger. That, therefore, the settling of these colonies at first was unwise, and the subsequent encouragement that was given them highly impolitic."—*M. R., lxvi., 428. "The Cow Chace" occupies twenty-six pages—the remainder is a reprint of "The American Times." See No. 1244. The following is the last stanza of this mock-heroic poem; founded on the defeat of Generals Wayne, Irving, and Proctor, to which subsequent events gave a melancholy interest:

And now I've clos'd my epic strain,
I tremble as I show it,
Lest this same warrior-drover, Wayne,
Should ever catch the poet.

Ein Angenehmer Geruch der Rosen und Lilien Die im Thal der Demuth unter den Dornen hervor gewachsen Alles aus der Schwesterlichen Gesellschaft in Saron. In Jahr des Heils, 1756. 4to, pp. 26. P. 1545

This and the following are from Mr. Winthrop Sargent's MS. List of Americana.

ANGHIERA (Pietro Martire d'). Libretto de tutta la navigazione dei Rei di Spagna delle isole e terreni nuovamente trovati. Stampato in Venezia per Alberto Vercellese de Lisona nel 1504. 4to. 1547

This exceedingly rare tract is a translation into the Venetian dialect of the first decade of Anghiera, by Angelo Trivigiano. See a curious note on this subject by J. Morelli, following his edition of Columbus' Letter, Bassano, 1810, 8vo, and again in his Works, i., 290. This voyage also forms the fourth book of the collection published by Monte Alboddo, Vicenze, 1507, and frequently reprinted. See Vespucci.

ANGHIERA. P. Martyris angli|mediolanensis opera|Legatio babylonica|Oceanidecas|Poemata|Epigrammata|cum preuilegio| [Colophon] Impressum Hispali cum summa diligencia per Jacobum corum|berger alemanum. Anno. Millessimo quingentesimo, xi. mense vero|Aprili. Folio, 74 leaves. 1548

The above title is from the Bib. Am. Vet., No. 66. Brunet gives the title as follows :

ANGLERIUS. Opera, scilicet legationis babylonicæ libri tres ; Oceani decas ; Carmina, Janus, Inachus, Pluto furens, et reliqua poemata, hymni et epigrammata ; cura Ælii Ant. Nebrissensis. Hispali, per Jacobum Crumberger, 1511. Folio, 74 leaves.

Now, as both of these titles were doubtless taken from the books themselves, they were probably two editions in the same year, especially as Harisse describes the Map as being on the recto of the forty-fifth leaf, and Brunet "au recto de l'avant-dernier feuillet une carte curieuse des découvertes de Colomb." They are both books of extre rarety.—both editions contain only the first nine books of the first decade and a portion of the tenth. Heber's copy sold for £8 8s. Brunet in his description of this work, refers to Panzer, iv., 339, and Hain, 10863, concerning an edition of poems of "P. Martyr d'Anghiera (Anglerius), una cum prima decade Oceanicarum, Hispani, 1500, in fol. Et effectivement le livre est annoncé sous cette même date dans la Bibliothèque uilenbroukiana, pars II., p. 238, No. 1181; mais l'errata placé à la suite de la préface de ce catal. nous prévient qu'il faut lire 1511 au lieu de 1500." Respecting this work, I find in Thorpe's Catalogue [about 1842], No. 1895: "Poemata, 4to, s. a., circa 1490," which is there said to be "Unknown to all bibliographers." The conjecture as to the date is probably erroneous.

This rare volume contains an abridgment of the first three Decades of Peter Martyr, and is dedicated to the Duke of Angouleme by the translator. On folio 132 there is a new dedication of "Trois Narrations" to Marguerite of France, in which he observes, that the first of the three narrations that follow, an account of Cuba, is translated from Peter Martyr. "Les deux narrations suyantes faictes en latin par Pierre Sauorguan de Foruile docteur es loix ont este dediees au Pape present Clement septiesme." "Première édition allemande de la première décade de Pierre Martyr, sur la découverte du nouveau Continent, très rare." This title is from a German catalogue. I find no other mention of this edition, but Mr. C. Welford, in one of his catalogues, lot 354, says: "Unique early tract in German, on the First Discovery of 'The Golden Islands or America.' The date is marked by Mr. Rich in MS., 1560."

Leaves 1-166 contain three Decades of Peter Martyr; then follow Alexander vi.'s famous Bull; Oviedo's Hystorie of the weste Indies; The vyage abowte the worlde, gathered oute of Pygafetta; The stryfe betwene the Spanyardes and Portugales, for the division of the Indies and the trade of Spices, by Fr. Lopez de Gomara, ending at leaf 244. The remainder of the book does not relate to America. Belleró's map is found in some copies. See Rich, No. 30. "Eden was the first Englishman who undertook to present, in a collective form, the astonishing results of the spirit of maritime enterprise, which had been everywhere awakened by the discovery of America. Nor was he a mere compiler. In point of learning, accuracy, and integrity, he is certainly superior to Hakluyt. This work is rendered more precious by information scattered through it, derived from the great seamen of the day, with whom the author's turn of mind led him to associate. In one chapter, he speaks of 'The Voyages of that worthy owld man, Sebastian Cabote, yet lyving in Englande.'"—BIDDLE.

B. 1578

Of great value for the information which it conveys respecting manners, customs, literature, arts and sciences of countries in both hemispheres, where missions have been established by the Propaganda Society. A partial analysis of the contents is inserted in the Catalogue of the Library of Parliament, Toronto, 1858. A portion of this work was translated, with the following title:

Annals of the Propagation of the Faith, a periodical collection of letters from the bishops and missionaries employed in the missions of the old and new world: and of all the documents relating to those missions and the Institution for the Propagation of the Faith. This collection serves as a continuation of the "Lettres edifiantes." Vol. I. From July 1839 to Nov. 1846. Paris, 1841. Vol. II.-VI. London, 1841-1845. 6 vols., 8vo.

There is also a German translation, entitled:

According to the "Thesaurus Librorum Rei Catholicæ, Würzburg, 1848," the Jahrbücher der Gessellschaft zur Verbreitung des Glaubens, Cöln, is also a translation of this work. There is also an edition in Italian, "Annali della propagazione della fede, Lyon," 8vo, apparently published simultaneously with the French.

The Annual Register, or a View of the History, Politicks, and Literature, of the Year 1758. London, Printed for R. and J. Dodsley, 1759. 8vo. Continued annually. 1614

Some of the earlier volumes were reprinted, and "A New Edition Corrected" of the fifteen volumes for 1758-1772 was published in 1774, by H. Saunders and others. This most valuable record and chronicle of historical and political events for over a hundred years contains accurate accounts of the Revolutionary War, as well as of the revolutions in South America, the Second War with Great Britain, and many other American subjects. It was edited by Burke, Campbell, Allen and others. As there are spurious sets, the following memoranda from Lowndes will aid the intending purchaser: "Some time after the year 1791, the copyright and stock from 1758 to 1790 were purchased by Otridge and other booksellers. After which period Messrs. Rivingtons, who had for a short time previously (during the illness of Mr. Dodsley) been agents for the work, published a rival continuation, which lasted from 1791 to 1812, and again from 1820 to 1824, when the two merged by arrangement into one. Some sets of the work have been made up by substituting Rivington's continuation with fictitious titles. How to distinguish the substitution may be ascertained by referring to the preface of the General Index, published by Baldwin & Co. in 1826. 8vo. A general index (1758-80) was published by Dodsley in 1783; another (1781-90) by the Rivingtons in 1799; and a third, superseding the previous ones, from the commencement to 1819, in 1826. And, as this complete index is only applicable to the original, or Dodsley series, the volumes published by the Rivingtons are generally rejected."

Also on large paper, rl. 8vo, and in 4to. 1629

Most of the quarto editions were also printed on large paper, and contain 42 plates; that of 1748 is the most desirable. The work has been repeatedly reprinted, often in an abridged form. Those that have come under my notice are quoted below. It is partly reprinted in Callander's Voyages, Vol. III., and in Harris's and other collections. See Ret. Rev., x., 285; M. Rev., xxv., 234. In regard to the authorship, see Davis's "Olio," pp. 1-4. Rich writes as follows: "Walter had prepared an account of this voyage for the press, but it was found so badly executed, that Benjamin Robins, the mathematician, was employed to re-write it, although, for some reason or other, the worthy chaplain's name was allowed to remain on the title-page. It is called by some English writers a masterpiece of composition; but it appears to have been made amusing at the expense of truth. The progress of science formed no part of this expedition, which was prepared for attacking, unawares, the Spanish possessions and shipping in the South Sea, and which was so successful, that the prize-money divided amongst the officers and crews amounted to more than a million sterling. The Biographie Universelle says, that the views, charts and plans deserve praise for their exactness; but Dr. Dibdin says, that the 'plates are in truth barbarously bad, and that to read the text without the plates must be a comfort.' He adds, moreover, that the volume is unworthy, in every respect, of the intrepid Anson. The doctor had, apparently, seen only the fifth edition, printed in 1749; in which, of course, the plates must have been nearly worn out. The copies of the first edition, on royal paper, of which I now have one before me, were superior to any book of the kind which had been hitherto published, and were unequalled until Cook's voyages appeared. Of the large paper copies, 350 were taken by subscription."

The title-page contains a misprint. As the work comprises the authors until the year 1500, the title ought to read, "usque ad annum MD" (1500), instead of M (1000). Antonio died without the means for printing the book. They were furnished by the Cardinal de Aguirre, who intrusted the editorship to Emmanuel Mars, a learned Valentinian. The authors are arranged in chronological order; tables are added to facilitate the use of the work. The "Bibliotheca Nova," although published first, is but a sequel of the "Bibliotheca Vetus," of which a reprint likewise has appeared at Madrid, in 1788, under this title:

ANTONIO. Bibliotheca Hispana vetus, sive Hispani Scriptores qui ab Octaviani Augusti Ævo ad annum Christi MD. floruerunt. Auctore D. Nicolao Antonio Hispalensi I.C. Ordinis S. Jacobi equite, patriæ Ecclesiæ canonico, regionum negotiorum in Urbe & Romana curia Procuratore generali, Consiliario regio. Curante Francisco Perezio Bayerio, Valentino, Sereniss. Hisp. Folio, Engraved Frontispiece and 40 p. l., pp. 633; Vol. II., Engraved Frontispiece, pp. 690. 1719

"Nicolas Antonio was born in 1617, at Sevilla, studied at Salamanca, and returned to Sevilla, composed his Bibliotheca Hispana in the convent of the Benedictines, where the abbot, Benedict de La Serra, had accumulated a splendid library. When it was sufficiently advanced, he took it to Rome, where he completed it. He died at Madrid, in 1684. Antonio, agreeable to the custom prevalent at that time, arranged the names of the authors according to the alphabetical order of their Christian names. This is a great inconvenience, which is only partially removed by the addition of a number of tables." Dibdin, in his "Bibliomania," calls the labors of Antonio models of composition in their way. Morhof considers it one of the best works of the kind. A new edition was published at Madrid, by Franc. Perez Bayer, a learned Valentian; the title of which is,

ANTONIO. Bibliotheca Hispana nova sive Hispanorum Scriptorum qui ab Anno MD. ad MDCLXXXIV. floruerunt Notitia. Auctore D. Nicolao Antonio Hispalensi I.C. Ordinis S. Appeal to Knowledge, or Candid Discussion of the Preliminaries of Peace, signed at Fontainebleau and laid before both Houses of Parliament. 1763. 8vo. 1776

An Appeal to Reason and Justice, in Behalf of the British Constitution, and the Subjects of the British Empire. In which the present important Contest with the Revolted Colonies is impartially considered, the Inconsistency of Modern Patriotism is demonstrated, the Supremacy of Parliament is asserted on Revolution Principles, and American Independence is proved to be a manifest Violation of the Rights of British Subjects. To which is added, An Appendix, containing Remarks on a Pamphlet intituled, Thoughts on the Present State of Affairs with America, by William Pulteney, Esq. [Motto.] London, W. Nicoll, MDCCLXXVIII. 8vo, Half Title, Title, pp. 176. 1777

"The writer of this elaborate appeal traverses again the beaten ground of this exhausted controversy, in order to demonstrate the injustice and ingratitude of the rebellious Americans toward their very loving and indulgent parent. He was not probably aware that the pamphlet on which he animadvert has generally been considered a ministerial production, and the harbinger of conciliatory proposals."—M. R., LIX., p. 150.

Appeal to the British Nation on the Affairs of South America, particularly as regards New Grenada. Printed for the Author, 1819. 1778

An Appeal to the candour and justice of the people of England, in behalf of the West India Merchants and Planters, founded on plain facts and incontrovertible arguments. London, J. Debrett, 1792. 8vo, pp. xvi., 118. 1779

"The author of this Appeal is an able advocate for the Colonists, not as composing distinct States, but as having, in common with British subjects, an indefeasible right to an exclusive disposal of their own property; after denying the right, he proceeds to expose the impolicy of raising a revenue in America against the will of the people; and this leads him to severe reprehension of the late measures, and alarming prediction of their consequences."—M. R., LI., 474. The authorship has been attributed to Arthur Lee (see R. H. Lee's Life of A. Lee, I., 19), also to Lord Chatham, Mr. Glover, and Dr. Franklin. A Second Appeal was published in 1775.

As It Is. [Manners and Customs in Washington recently.]
Albany, 1860. 12mo, pp. 260. 2159

As the great business of the polite world is the eager pursuit of amusement, and as the Public diversions of the Season have been interrupted by the hostile parade in the capital, the exhibition of a new farce may not be unentertaining. The Group, as lately acted and to be re-acted to the wonder of all superior intelligences, nigh head quarters to Amboyna. The author has thought proper to borrow the following spirited lines from a late celebrated poet, and offer to the public by way of Prologue, which cannot fail of pleasing at this crisis. AUDUBON. The Birds of America from Original Drawings By John James Audubon London, Published by the Author, 1827-30. 4 vols., Atlas folio, 435 Colored Plates. H. 2362

First issued in eighty-seven parts; and one of the most sumptuous ornithological works ever published; the coloring of the plumage, and the exact drawing of the birds, can scarcely be surpassed. The birds are represented in action amid the scenes, or on the plants and trees, most common to their habits, presenting a variety of land and marine views of floral and other productions of different climates and seasons. Its great dimensions have permitted eagles and other birds of the largest size to be represented of their natural size, and even in groups. "All is combined to ally," says Brunet, "in the most happy manner, the exactness of individual details with a living and animated representations of general forms." The plates were published without any text, to avoid the necessity of furnishing copies gratis to the public libraries in England, agreeably to the law of copyright. Trübner, p. 174, quotes the work with plain plates. I have never seen one in that condition. Owing to the destruction by fire of the stock and copper-plates the work has become extremely rare, and even small sections command high prices.

AUDUBON. The Birds of America. From Drawings made in the United States and their Territories. By John James Audubon. Reissued by J. W. Audubon. New York, Roe Lockwood & Son, Publishers, 1861. 2363

This is a selection of one hundred and forty plates, only, from the first edition, reproduced in colored lithographs; much inferior to the former edition. The letter-press to this selection forms 4 vols. royal 8vo, and describes many birds not represented in the volume of plates. Indeed, this reissue is an unfinished publication, and the intelligent collector will only accept it as a cheap substitute for the previous work. The following is a complete work on a smaller scale:

AUDUBON. The Birds of America, from Drawings made in the United States and their Territories. By John James Audubon New York, J. J. Audubon; Philadelphia, J. B. Chevalier, 1840-44. 7 vols., rl. 8vo. H. 2364

Chevalier's name does not appear in Vols. vi. and vii. First and most desirable edition in this form published during the author's lifetime, in one hundred parts. It was republished in New York, 1856. In the new edition described below the plates have a tinted background, which is objectionable.

AUDUBON. The Birds of America, from Drawings made in the United States and their Territories. By John James Audubon, F.R.S. Re-issued By J. W. Audubon. New York, Roe Lockwood & Son, 1861. 7 vols., impl. 8vo; Vol. i., pp. viii., 246; II. viii., 200; III., viii., 234; IV., viii., 322; V., viii., 346; VI., viii., 456; VII., viii., viii., 372. 500 Colored Plates, each 10 inches by 7. 2365

In a later edition, dated 1865, the pagination is changed, and the work forms eight volumes, but the contents are the same. The edition of seven volumes is preferable for the plates.

AUDUBON. Ornithological Biography, or an Account of the Habits of the Birds of the United States of America; accompanied by Descriptions of the Objects represented in the work, entitled the Birds of America, and interspersed with Delineations of American Scenery and Manners. By John James Audubon Philadelphia, E. L. Carey and A. Hart, MDCCCXXXII. 5 vols., rl. 8vo. H. 2366

Vol. i. is often missing. The remaining volumes were published as follows: Vol. II. Boston, Hilliard, Gray, and Company, MDCCCXXXV. Vol. III.-V. Edinburgh, Adam & Charles Black, MDCCCXXXV.-MDCCCXXXIX. Some copies of Vol. i. have the imprint, Edinburgh, A. & C. Black, MDCCCXXXI.

AUDUBON and BACHMAN. The Viviparous Quadrupeds of North America. By John James Audubon ... and the Rev. John Bachman New York, J. J. Audubon, 1845-48. 3 vols., Columbian folio. 150 Plates. H. Letterpress, 3 vols., rl. 8vo. 2367

First published in thirty parts, of five plates each (22 x 28). There is another edition (New York, Roe, Lockwood & Sons, 1855. Plates, 2 vols., folio. Text, 3 vols., rl. 8vo.), which the publishers say "is precisely the same, in every respect, as that published by Mr. Audubon, and was even printed and colored by the same persons who executed the former under his personal supervision." I cannot endorse this statement. The first edition is by far the best. The following is a reproduction of the work on a smaller scale, matching in size and style the edition of the birds described in No. 2364 supra:

The writer of this pamphlet is of opinion "that M. St. John's design, in publishing his letters, was to diffuse a spirit of migrating to America." He accuses him also of a palpable falsehood, in describing "himself as a native American, descended from Scotch parents, it being a fact, according to this writer, well known, that he is a native of Normandy, and that his chief residence while in America was at New York." See M. R., lxviii., 537. The author was the Rev. Samuel Ayscough." See NICHOLS, ix., p. 55.

Maps and Plates. + Amsterdam, H. des Bordes, 1723. 4 vols., 12mo. + Paris, Nyon fils, 1753. 4 vols., 12mo. c. 2692

This work entirely relates to Canada and the Iroquois Indians; the plates comprise the earliest views taken in Canada. It is written in the form of letters, except the second volume, which is divided into chapters. It contains several badly written memoirs on a considerable portion of the history of Canada. What the author relates, from his own observation, may be relied upon; but, in other respects, he was not well informed, although apparently sincere and dispassionate. The title-pages to vols. II.-IV. differ from the first. See Rich, I., 31; Boucher VI., 22.

"7 fnc., 95 pp. (chiff. 85) à 2 colonnes. Cette doctrine chrétienne est sans nul doute le seul livre qui existe maintenant sur la langue chinanteca ou chinacantequa; puisque la grammaire de Fr. de Cepeda, impr. à Mexico en 1560, in-4°, n'existe dans aucune biblioth. connue (Cf. Ludewig, Bibliotheca glottica, p. 40). Cette langue est parlée par les Indiens de Oaxaca, Mexique, dans les districts de Quiechapa, Jalalog et Chuapan. Une note mss. collée sur la couverture indique que ce vol. a été donné à M. Melchior Verheyen, voyageur, par le curé de Jalapillio, M. Mendoza." Title and note from Leclerc, Bib. Am., No. 117.

BARREIROS. Commentarius de Ophira Regione apud Divinam Scripturam commemorata et ad eam Navigatione. Coimbra, 1561. 4to. 3595

Bossi (Vita di Colombo, p. 61) says: "Gasparr Varrerio ... scrittore di un libro eruditissimo de Ophira regione, dedicato nel 1550 al re di Portogallo, composto forse molto tempo prima." A second dedication, however, dated 1560, shows that it was not published before the date given above, when it was appended to:

BARREIROS. Chorographia de alguns logares que stam em hum caminho que fez Gaspar Barreiros em o anno de M.D.LXXXXVI começando na cidade de Badajoz ... tee a de Milam ... con algunas outras obras. Coimbra, Ioão Aluarez, 1561. 4to.

The Commentarius is also appended to A. Canisii De Locis S. Scripturæ Hebraicis Commentarius, Antverpiæ, 1600, 8vo; and, with the following title, to the "Novus Orbis:"

BARREIROS. Casparis Varrerii Lysitani Commentarius de Ophira Regione, In sacris litteris Lib. III. Regum & II. Paralipomenon. Roterodami, Apud Iannem Lemardi Brevewout, 1616. 8vo, (42) l. H. 3597

Also to Joh. Is. Pontani Discussionum Historicarum Libri Duo, Harderovici Gelrorum, 1637, 8vo; and it is included in Criticorum Sacrorum Tomus Secundus, Amstelodami, fol., II. 1163-1182. (H.) Georgi mentions an edition, "Hardovici, 1627, 8vo," which is perhaps an error for 1637, as above. In catalogues, Barreiros almost uniformly appears under the Latin form Varrerius. "In this dissertation the author disproves the then reigning opinion that the Ophir of King Solomon was America. He tried to show, that Ophir was not far distant from Iudæa, and certainly in Asia. His reasoning is ingenious and learned."

See Rich's Bibl. Am., Vol. 1., 249, where three pages are occupied in describing this Atlas, and it is justly termed "The most splendid collection of charts, plans and views ever published. It was executed at the expense of the British Government, for the use of the British navy, and no expense spared in its execution in order to render it a monument worthy of the nation." The coast of Nova Scotia was surveyed by J. F. W. Des Barres, Esq.; the coasts, harbors, &c., of St. Lawrence, in North America, by Major Holland; those of New England, &c., by S. Holland, G. Sproule, C. Blascowitz, J. Grant, and T. Wheeler; and those of North America, from New York south-westward to the Gulf of Mexico, from various surveys.

Contains the celebrated "Tracts on the possibility of approaching the North-Pole." In these tracts are laid down the results of numerous inquiries addressed to whaling captains, especially to those who frequented the coasts of Labrador and Greenland. A large part of Dr. Scoresby's "Arctic regions" is devoted to a discussion of the facts collected by Barrington. Also contains, "Whether the Turkey was known before the Discovery of America," and Francisco Antonio Maurelle's "Journal of a Spanish Voyage in 1775, to explore the Western Coast of N. America."

This is a most important collection, consisting of eight decades in all. Decades II. and III. contain some particulars concerning Magellan, the discovery of America, Brazil, etc. Diego do Couto assisted in the compilation, and a complete set of these "Autores Dignos de Eterna Fama," is certainly "one of the rarest and most important in the whole range of Portuguese literature." I have not thought it necessary to describe the other decades. A perfect copy of the Decada VI. is of the greatest rarity, nearly all the copies having been destroyed by fire. Concerning this work, see Da Silva Dicionario Bibliographia Portuguez, III., 322; Oliveyra, Mémoires Historiques y Littéraires de Portugal; Bibliotheca Grenvilliana, Vol. I., 60; and Meuselius, Vol. II., Part II., 28. Brunet remarks that the original editions are presque introuvables. An imperfect set sold at Puttick's, in 1860, for £19 15s. There was an Italian translation of Decades I. and II., with the following title:

BARROS. L'Asia del Sig. Giovanni di Barros, consigliere del christianissimo Re di Portogallo, de fatti dei Portoghesi nello scoprimento e conquiste de mari e terre di Oriente. Venetia, 1561-62. 2 vols., 4to. 3647
